Subject and speaker.	Summary of discussion.	Reply of Govt.
	Taluks and mile stones, &c., have been fixed. This channel has been so designed as to extend up to the Lakshmanatirtha river at Hunsur and is nearly 35 miles in length. When the channel is completed, ten or twelve thousand acres of dry land would be brought under wet cultivation yielding to Government an additional revenue of half a lakh of rupees a year. Moreover some 10 lakhs of rupees would be realized by the sale of waste lands and the levy of acreage contribution. The water-supply in the 5 channels drawn from the Lakshmanatirtha river being now insufficient for the irrigation of even one half of the area dependant upon them it is under contemplation to construct a bridge across the Lakshmanatirtha river and to extend the Tippur Cauvery channel over that bridge up to the Anandur channel which is one of the 5 channels above mentioned, at a cost of one lakh of rupees. This can only be of service to the lands below the Anandur channel and not to those under the remaining 4 channels. If, instead of doing so, the Alalkatte southern channel be extended, a sufficient supply can be secured for all the 5 channels referred to, and the cost of constructing the bridge saved.	Referred to the D. P. W.
Subject No. 498 Water-supply. Mr. Petrie Hay of Hunsur Municipality.	The water-supply now provided for the town of Hunsur is very much appreciated by the people and the public health has greatly improved.
